A total of 96 pages and 24 selections (each selection ranging from 3 to 5 pages). Obviously, these are not transcriptions, but the arrangements are still complex (Arranged by Brent Edstrom). I am more than impressed.

These arrangements are SUPERB. I'm a huge fan of Bill Evans and I can truly say I've found a great book that I now treasure. They accurately match the harmonies and register-on-the-piano that Bill Evans used in playing these pieces. The sound is complete, with the use of enough bass and chords structured in 7ths and 10ths. You will find you left and right hand playing a lot of inner chords while holding the melody, something Bill Evans did a lot. The leads are NOT note-to-note transcriptions but carry substance, and emulate Bill Evans 100%. The "leads" per selection vary in dept, as some of the selections have more lead action than others. Either way, I am excited and glad to own these arrangements. THANK YOU!

Bill Evans for Mortals

By Ian Munro

Fantatstic collection of tunes that Bill Evans performed throughout his career. Twenty-four tunes for $12 - you can't beat it with a stick. Here is your chance to sound like Bill without having to quit your job and study piano full time - if that would even work. Brent E. does a masterfulfull job of arranging these tunes in the Bill Evans' style and yet they are quite accessible to players of modest technique. Brent E.: When are you going to do the same for Oscar P's canon?

Good arrangements!

By David K. Miller

Brent Edstrom has created very nice interpretations of Bill Evans pieces. The upper intermediate difficulty allows for quick learning although the arrangements sound very convincing. The written out solo sections are great for those of us who lack true jazz improv skills but love the sound. I'm impressed that there are so many titles (24) in one reasonably priced book and that Edstrom has such a deep bag of arranging skills. There are delightful surprises in every piece. I've already ordered three more of his books in the Jazz Piano Solos series: "Duke Ellington", "Disney" and "Jazz for Lovers". I've added Edstrom to my go-to list of current pop/jazz arrangers including Mark Hayes, Larry Shackley, Dan Coates and Carol Tornquist.
