This was not a book....

By dame_ashley

No it was not a book, but the finale installation of a series. It seems to be all of the rage right now, write a few pages, then publish. A throw back if you will to the serial stories in ladies magazines a precursor to soap operas.

There is nothing wrong with a series. IF it stated clearly that is what it is. I'm sorry, but 27 pages is not a book. It is an installment, and should be noted as such. Amazon would be smart to start selling these under that heading.

Now to this work. From what I read, it seems that the story was getting it's wrap up.... Or was it? Apparently another "book" is in the making (oh goodie!) So, no, the story has not finished, there needs to be more income from incomplete work to be made!

The characters were developed as far as I could see, and that isn't very much considering there were only 27 pages of material. You really needed to read from the start of the series. So be prepared to pay for each installment.

Personally, I would pass it up, series like this are a pain in the A$$.

An amazing love story!

By Maria B

Simply amazing! It was an honest to goodness non existent stepbrotherly/stepsisterly connection from start to finish. Nicely written, happily ever after love story with a wonderful baby, wonderful parents!
