NO HAPPY ENDING (HECTOR BELASCOARAN SHAYNE DETECTIVE NOVELS) BY PACO IGNACIO TAIBO PDF

The third English language case for Mexico City independent detective Hector Belascoaran Shayne, No Happy Ending, is Paco Ignacio Taibo II at his subversive, darkly comic best. First, Hector discovers the body of a dead actor, dressed like a Roman in full breastplate and regalia, propped up on the toilet in his office. Shortly thereafter, he receives a threatening letter and a snapshot of another murdered corpse. As Hector investigates the killings, he discovers that both share a connection to a dead stuntman named Zorak who apparently perished while training a government-backed paramilitary group. Once again, the one-eyed anarchist detective finds himself up against the very institutions which persecute the downtrodden and oppress the masses. In typical Taibo fashion, Hector appears destined to lose: the ending to this remarkable absurdist tale shows his bullet-ridden body lying face down in the gutter during a rainstorm.

Mexico city crime noir

By Bob Watts

One of the few Paco Ignacio detective novels that have been translated. Different characters than you usually encounter in detective novels. I have read a couple of these now and may branch out in other books he has written.

Quirky

By Beth W

Taibo is quirky. I like the Mexican politics in his books. He has multiple storylines that sometimes don't seem to connect.
