Excellent!

By GB8

This story captivated me from the very first page. The writing flowed and I never had to stop and question why something was happening. Ali's writing had me reading each line as if I was watching a scene in a movie. The serial killer story was engaging and I loved how it tied to Tally. All of the "authority figures" were so great that it made me wish I could drive to the south and meet them all in person...if they were real people of course (lol). But my favorite part was the interaction between the Tally and "visions". I got goose bumps and shed a few tears. At one point the story reminded me of watching The Ghostwhisper...I loved that show! Oh and the romance between Tally and Blair was very sweet! I usually like a longer build up to intimacy but the "soul mate" angle excuses that. Do yourself a favor and read this book!

Could not put this book down!

By TJD

I am a bit of a lurker when it comes to book reviews BUT I had to capture just how much I liked this book. The author quickly establishes the quirky main character and then adds lots of drama and heart stopping action, add in a love story and you have a good book. The story leaves you guessing all the way to the end. I am hoping the author will continue the story.

Spellbinding

By Telstar

As always with an Ali Spooner book, I was hooked in from the first page and held spellbound until the last. This book is well written and definitely a one sitting read. I love Tally and Blair and I'm really hoping this is the first in a series. If you enjoy a good mystical murder/romance, look no further, this is excellent.
